

Here's What Our Clients Say About Us

"Nikkisha and her team have tended to the medical, physical, and emotional needs of both of our parents for several years now. They deliver personalized care based on their own assessment. They are warm, compassionate individuals who have become surrogate family members. We highly recommend their services."

-Nancy Scartozzi, Paoli, PA

"We were fortunate to come across Nikkisha Morris and her personal care company at a time in our lives when we were unable to support our mother with Alzheimer's."

Integrity gave us a peace of mind knowing that our mother was being taken care of with the same love and compassion that we would give. During the years that Integrity cared for her, we found Nikkisha and her staff completely dependable and highly skilled in their professional services."

The combination of the love and client dignity given to our mother resulted in a deep bond between Integrity and our family."

-Barbara Zukin, West Chester, PA

"Compassionate. Caring. Trustworthy. Reliable. These are only a few words to describe our experience with Integrity First. Nikkisha and her team treated our mother with such kindness and respect. It can be a difficult decision to have help come in and take care of a loved one. Without hesitation, I have recommended Integrity First to many other people who have been equally as pleased with their services. I sincerely cannot say enough wonderful things about them."

-Beth Rendina, Wayne, PA

"After observing how Nikki cared for a close friend, my parents hired Nikki to provide care and support for them when they could no longer independently care for themselves. Nikki and her dedicated staff provided care 24 hours a day, 7 days a week that was both comforting for my parents and the entire family. She earned our trust and respect. Highly recommended."

-Richard Clompus, OD, West Chester, PA

Professional Home Care Delivered with Love and Respect

One thing above all else defines the high quality of care we at Integrity First Home Care Solutions provide—we first want to see you and your loved one happy. Our main focus is to provide the best care possible with respect to not only you and your loved one, but to our care giving staff.

As skilled professionals, our capabilities encompass any non-medical specialized services you may need. Empathy and compassion are just a few of the elements we live by when interacting with clients daily.

We believe what we do is a calling. Our caregivers are highly qualified individuals chosen not just for their experience and credentials, but for their hearts. Our team prides themselves on the ability to relate personally with the individuals they care for.

The Care You Need, When You Need It

Whatever the state of your loved one's health, we promise to help ensure they can remain at home in familiar, comfortable surroundings. We aim to execute this by delivering 24-hour care and reachability. Very often our caregivers connect with both the patient and the family on a personal level, sometimes forming lifelong friendships along the way. No matter what, our team will try their absolute best to live up to your expectations and surpass them.

We listen.

Customized Care According to Plan

We begin by listening—learning your needs and expectations are the first steps to welcoming you into our community. From there we will develop a care plan specific to the lifestyle of your loved one. There will always be room for flexibility. This means that if a plan begins to reflect a need in change, we will be proactive in making the necessary adjustments. The plan will include:

- Your goals and expectations
- Summary of services
- Daily tasks and schedules
- Special circumstances
- Ongoing follow-up and adjustments
